

TATA MUTUAL FUND

Tata Mutual Fund (TMF), a brand from Tata Asset Management, one of the oldest asset management companies in India and one of India's leading investment managers, is based on the dictum that managing wealth is as important as creating it.

TMF is an Indian brand with a global network of partnerships. The brand has established loyalty among its client base through product differentiation, branding activities, the confidence of associates, performance of the funds and overall experience of the customers.

The brand enjoys a high equity in the country, thanks to its expertise, trustworthiness, maturity and modern outlook. Its appeal lies in the unique combination of its features, comprising expertise in fund management and best-in-class service and trust. Over the years, award winning fund performances have reinforced the TMF brand image as expert money managers.

The performance of the brand reaffirms the trust placed in the fund by the customers. Customers look forward not only to high returns which are in line with their appetite for risk, but also to peace of mind, knowing that their funds will not be mismanaged.

In a financial scenario that sees a lot of volatility, the Tata name assures customers that their money is in safe hands, that Tata Asset Management will act in their best interest and that TMF will resolve their financial needs.
